Bio

Ekaterina Zaznova is a contemporary watercolor artist based in New Jersey, USA. She is the creator of the original "Watercolor & Alcohol" technique, registered with the US Copyright Office, and author of an online course for artists on international platforms.

She has organized over 100 watercolor projects with more than 1,000 participants and curates the international initiatives Pro Akvarel and About Watercolour, uniting over 10,000 artists worldwide with a monthly reach of 180,000+.

Zaznova is a member of the American Watercolor Society (AWS), National Watercolor Society (NWS), Transparent Watercolor Society of America (TWSA), the Union of Russian Watercolorists, and the Eurasian Artists' Union.

Her works have been featured at the Affordable Art Fair NYC and in the Union of Russian Watercolorists Exhibition, where she was selected among 1,500 submissions.

Her series- Flower Talismans, Stream of thoughts, Textures, and Marine Motifs - explore human inner strength, fears, and transformation through symbolism, texture, and experimental watercolor language.
